

Brandy Lake BP Fundraiser

THE RIBOLI FAMILY, FOUNDERS OF RIBOLI WINE ESTATES & CREATORS OF STELLA ROSA

It all started in 1917, when the Riboli family founded Los Angeles' historic San Antonio Winery. Back then, Los Angeles was the prime location for wine growing in all of California. For some time, the wine industry reigned as one of Southern California's most economically significant and popular industries of that time.

After surviving Prohibition and about a century later, the Riboli family has continued its artisan winemaking tradition through four generations.

From within the tasting rooms of San Antonio Winery, customers repeatedly requested a sweeter, light, refreshing wine. The Riboli family took this unique opportunity to create a new semi-sweet, semi-sparkling wine style, which today, they are a leader of. And so, Stella Rosa was born.
